

HELPFUL & FREE RESOURCES FOR REMOTE WORK AND VIDEO CONFERENCING

Google Hangouts / www.gsuite.google.com

Through July 1, 2020, all G Suite customers can use advanced Hangouts Meet features, like larger meetings (up to 250 participants), live streaming, and recording.

Microsoft Teams / www.teams.microsoft.com

Microsoft Team is free to sign up for on any device and allows you to chat, meet, call and collaborate all in one place.

Zoom / www.zoom.us.com

Zoom Basic can host up to 100 participants with an unlimited number of meetings and a 40- minute limit on group meetings.

UberConference / www.uberconference.com

UberConference's free plan gives you access to up to ten participants (PINs required), unlimited conferences, screen sharing, call recording, and more.

Pexip / www.pexip.com

Pexip is available for free for 30 days. During your free trial, you'll receive easy to use group video meetings & calls on any device or browser.

Lifesize Go / www.go.lifesize.com

Lifesize Go is unlimited free video conference calling – no download required.

Cisco Webex / www.webex.com

*Cisco Webex free offers up to 100 participants in each meeting. Meet as long as you want with an unlimited number of meetings. They are also offering the first month free when you sign up for a monthly plan & four months free when purchasing an annual plan with the code: wecare2020.